Election/Restrictions

Newly submitted claims 54-57 are directed to an invention that is independent or distinct from the invention originally claimed for the following reasons: the product could be used in a different manner such as the device need not be used in a manner in which the distal tip of the catheter passes through the embolus (it could go around it). Since applicant has received an action on the merits for the originally presented invention, this invention has been constructively elected by original presentation for prosecution on the merits. Accordingly, claims 54-57 are withdrawn from consideration as being directed to a non-elected invention. See 37 CFR 1.142(b) and MPEP § 821.03.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 33 and 51-53 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Tsugita, et al.-5911734 in view of Cohen, et al.-5167239.

Tsugita discloses a device as shown in fig. 10-11 having an outer tube 132 constraining a clot removal device 50 on an inner tube 13. The inner tube extends to a point 14 distally past the distal end 136 of the outer tube. The clot removal device self-expands upon proximal retraction of the outer tube. See col. 13 line 42-col. 14 line 41.

However, Tsugita does not disclose the guidewire. Cohen discloses a guidewire with lumens for balloon inflation fluid or medicament infusion for use in guiding catheters during vascular procedures. It would have been obvious to have used a guidewire to guide the device of fig. 10 in Tsugita into position, as this is the use of guidewires in cardiovascular procedures as it allows for traversal of the catheter through the tortuous vasculature lumens.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 34 and 47 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Canceled claims

Claims 1-32,35-46 and 48-50 have been canceled.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 06-06-2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant failed to address the rejection based on fig. 10 and 11 indicated in the last office action. In that figure, no motion of a guidewire is necessary to expand the embolus removal apparatus as it self-expands upon withdrawal of the outer tube.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
